Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b)
(application filed on or after May 29, 2000)

The patent term adjustment to date is 0 days. If the issue fee is paid on the date that is three months after the mailing date of this notice and the patent issues on the Tuesday before the date that is 28 weeks (six and a half months) after the mailing date of this notice, the term adjustment will be 0 days.

If a continued prosecution application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines patent term adjustment is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant Alfred B. Levesque (pro se) on February 20, 2003.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 1-6 have been canceled.

New claims 7-14 have been added and which are allowed.

B₁
~~1.~~ A towel and fabric clip comprising:
a base member having a proximal end and a distal end longitudinally spaced from the proximal end of the base member along a longitudinal direction of the clip;
a front member having a proximal end and a distal end portion longitudinally spaced from the proximal end of the front member along the longitudinal direction of the clip; and a bridge portion integrally connecting to each of the proximal ends of the base member and the front member, and the bridge portion having two lateral end surfaces laterally spaced from one another along a width direction of the clip for laterally offsetting the front member from the base member along the width direction of the clip, the width direction of the clip being perpendicular to the longitudinal direction of the clip.

~~2.~~ The clip of claim 1~~7~~, wherein an inner side surface of each of the base member and the front member includes raised rails for providing a resistance in the longitudinal direction and width direction of the clip thereby preventing unsecurment of layered fabrics of greater thicknesses when the fabrics are secured between the base and front members.

3
~~3.~~ The clip of claim 1~~7~~, wherein the length of the base member in the longitudinal direction of the clip is greater than the length of the front member in the longitudinal direction of the clip for allowing the clip to easily slide over layered fabrics.

³
~~4~~ 10. The clip of claim ~~9~~, further comprising wherein the distal end portion of the front member includes a raised lip extending away from the base member for allowing the clip to easily slide over layered fabrics.

B1
cont.
~~5~~ 11. The clip of claim ~~7~~, wherein the width direction of the clip includes a right-hand direction and a left hand direction opposite to the right-hand direction, and the front member is laterally offset along one of the right-hand direction and the left-hand direction, for providing the clip in one of a right-hand design and a left hand design.

~~6~~ 12. The clip of claim ~~7~~, wherein the front member and the base member are not parallel to each other.

~~7~~ 13. The clip of claim ~~7~~, wherein the distal end portion of the front member includes a raised lip extending away from the base member for allowing the clip to easily slide over layered fabrics.

~~8~~ 14. The clip of claim ~~7~~, wherein the lateral end surfaces have a curved contour.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest a towel and fabric clip having the structural combination wherein the bridge portion is integrally connecting to each of the proximal ends of the base member and the front member, and the bridge portion having two lateral end surfaces laterally spaced from one another along a width direction of the clip for laterally offsetting the front member from the base member along the width direction of the clip, the width direction of the clip being perpendicular to the longitudinal direction of the clip.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
